NEWS FROM THE HIVE!

From the Administration

Parents, if you would like to meet with a teacher, you must notify them through email or call the school prior to the meeting. Also, please be sure you check in through the office before going to the teacher's classroom.

- When driving on slippery surfaces like ice or snow, use gentle pressure on the accelerator pedal when starting. If your wheel start to spin, let up on the accelerator until traction returns.

Tips for Driving in Bad Weather

Sgt. Glass submitted the following information for students and their families:

- Turn your headlights on anytime you need to turn your windshield wipers on – in rain, fog, sleet, freezing rain or snow. (It is now the law in Virginia that you have to turn on your lights whenever your windshield wipers are on).
- Double or triple the space you normally leave between you and the next car in wet weather. You'll need even more space to stop (up to ten times as much space) on slick roads.
- Brake gently
- Make sure your exhaust tail pipe is clear if you've backed into a snow bank. If your tail pipe is blocked, you could get sick or die from carbon monoxide poisoning.

What To Do in An Accident

Aparent's worst nightmare: your teen's been involved in an automobile crash. While the thought is very upsetting, a few words of guidance from you might just prove to be supportive to your teen during a very difficult time. Even the most level-headed motorists can be shocked, stunned, and more than a little shaken.

Most people will have their adrenaline pumping after a crash and it may be difficult to keep a level head. Simply trying to stay calm can be difficult, particularly if others around you are excitable, too.

Provide these following tips to your teenager. You may even want to keep them in the glove-box of your car, so that your son or daughter has immediate access to the information:

Remain calm.

Check to make sure that you and your passengers are all right.

If another vehicle is involved, check to make sure those individuals are all right.

If anyone at the scene of the crash requires immediate medical attention, call 911 for an ambulance.

Call 911 for the police.

If your vehicle is stopping traffic or is presenting a hazard (and can still be driven), Virginia law requires that you move it to the side of the road.

Teens: Call a parent or guardian.

Make a note of which police department and which ambulance service respond to the crash (you should get the name of the police officer you speak with at the crash scene).

Exchange information with the other driver. This includes the driver's name, address, home phone, work phone, license plate number, year/make/model of vehicle, vehicle identification number, name of insurance company, phone number of agent, insurance policy number and effective date. (Most of this information is recorded on the police report).

If there are witnesses, get their names, addresses, and phone numbers.

Don't discuss the crash with anyone except police.

If you are hurt or shaken up and need help getting home, call someone to pick you up.

Call your insurance agent / claim department.

Record the Scene:

Many insurers recommend carrying a disposable camera in your glove box to record the scene of an accident. A camera can prove more effective than attempting to draw the scene of the accident on a piece of paper. It's easy to forget critical details after an accident, so take notes of any circumstance you think are unusual or particularly relevant to the claim while at the scene.

If you're judged not to have been at fault in the accident, the other driver's insurance company should pay for repairs, and vice-versa.

Campbell County ESL

The Campbell County ESL (English as a Second Language) department currently serves about seventy-five students in the county's schools. Students range from kindergarten through twelfth grade, and are at varying levels of proficiency.

Students are referred to us for screening if their school enrollment forms indicate the home language is other than English, or if a teacher notices the student is having difficulty with classwork or comprehension due to a language barrier.

Teachers trained to help students with acquisition of English work with students at their home schools. In elementary school, students go to the ESL teacher for individualized instruction. In middle school, the ESL teacher often goes into the content area class to assist the student, or have the student come to a resource class for help. In high school, students are assigned to a resource class for assistance, and the ESL teacher collaborates with the content teachers.

Our goal is to provide the support that is needed for students to learn academics at their grade level while also learning English. We do this in many ways, including games, pictures, videos, charades, acting, and real life experiences. We encourage our students to take an active role in the school community by becoming involved in school activities whenever possible.

We look forward to a successful year coming up.

COLLEGE APPLICATION DEADLINES

Winter Break is fast approaching and so are the majority of college application deadlines. Please be aware that the deadline to turn in all transcript requests for college and scholarship applications that have a deadline before January 13, 2012 need to be turned in to your student's school counselor by December 6, 2011.

HOBY WINNER ANNOUNCED

Congratulations to Riley Dewitt-Rickards! Riley was selected as Brookville High School's HOBY (Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership) representative. Riley will travel to James Madison University in May to participate in the program.

PSAT RESULTS

The PSAT results will be in soon! Score reports will be distributed to all students who took the PSAT during an informational session on how to interpret their report in December. ### Ninth Grade Classroom Guidance

We conducted our 2nd classroom guidance lesson with the 9th graders on Nov. 1, 3 and 4, 2011. During this lesson we focused on the idea of "Making High School Count". Topics such as GPA and transcript (what are they, what's on it and how are they calculated), importance of freshman year, getting involved in extracurricular activities and volunteering, learning styles and connecting that style to study skills/tips and more. Each student was given a copy of the lesson to take home to share with parents. Please take time to review this information with your student. What your child does in high school truly has an effect on the doors that will be open to them upon graduation and establishing a strong foundation in their freshmen year is the key to success throughout their high school career. I highly encourage you to stay updated on freshmen year activities and events by checking out the Brookville High School Website www.bhsbees.com

You can also stay updated through the "BHS Freshmen Bulletins" that are published every few weeks. Each freshman is given a paper copy and they are also published on our website.

Tenth Grade Classroom Guidance

We conducted our 3rd classroom guidance lesson with the sophomores on November 14 and 15, 2011. During this lesson we met with the students through their English 10 courses. We covered graduation requirements and options after high school. The focus was on what the students can and should be doing now as sophomores in high school to prepare for those transitions. We also covered college entrance exams (SAT and ACT), National Honor Society Requirements, Governor's School and Early College Program Requirements/Application Process and the Campbell County Technical Center. Each student was given a copy of the lesson to take home to share with parents. Please take time to review this information with your student. What your child does in high school truly has an effect on the doors that will be open to them upon graduation.

I highly encourage you to stay updated on sophomore year activities and events by checking out the Brookville High School Website www.bhsbees.com

You can also stay updated through the "BHS Sophomore Bulletins" that are published every few weeks. Each sophomore is given a paper copy and they are also published on our website.

ENCOURAGE YOUR HIGH SCHOOLER TO VOLUNTEER IN YOUR HOME TOWN

Teens tend to think that the whole world is focused on them – that “everyone” is looking at that huge zit or “everyone” will laugh if they fail the driver’s test. Help your teen think about the needs of others by encouraging him/her to volunteer in your community. They could volunteer at:

- A local camp. Any camp could use any extra pair of hands.
- The local humane society.
- The local library.
- The local children’s museum. Amazement Square has a teen volunteer program
- The local hospitals. VA Baptist and Lynchburg General have teen volunteer programs.
- Habitat for Humanity
- And so many more!

Teens who give back to their communities often have higher self-esteem and are more courteous to others. They also gain valuable work experience – which will look GREAT on a job resume, college or scholarship application. If your teen isn’t sure where to volunteer their time, encourage them to talk to their guidance counselor. We can help connect your teen with a volunteer program that will be right for them.

CHORAL DEPARTMENT NEWS

Congratulations to our choral students who were selected to the 2012 All-District High School Chorus. These students will represent Brookville High School at the event on February 10 & 11, 2012, at Radford University: Morgan Bruce, Riley Dewitt-Rickards, Chandler Baldree, Jasmine Fisher, Madison Allen, Haley Epperson and Sarah Noell.

On Wednesday, December 14, the BHS Choral groups will present a Holiday performance at Brookville High School. The concert will be a celebration of the music of English composer, John Rutter, who is world renowned, especially for his Christmas music and for his boy choir compositions. His most recent composition was commissioned for the Royal Wedding of Prince William and Catherine this past April at Westminster Abbey. Tickets for the concert will be $3 with the income going towards the Daryl Knott Choral Music Scholarship established by BHS Chorus alumni last spring and given annually to a Senior who plans to pursue music in their future career.
