News from Guidance

Seniors

Although we have only completed the first semester of the 2009-2010 school year, students are already involved in planning their program for next year. Most of the seniors who are applying to four year colleges have completed the application process. Early decision acceptances have been received. As a result of the BHS Financial Aid Workshop before the holidays, many families are in the process of submitting a Financial Aid Application. The senior counselors are still working with students who are applying to colleges with later deadlines. Those who are still applying should be aware of college application due dates. Most seniors will probably receive notification as to the status of their application by April 1. If seniors are still undecided as they receive their acceptances, remember that a campus visit can often help students make a final choice. Watch your deadlines for accepting college offers of admission and for sending in housing deposits. Be sure to inform colleges you are not accepting that you will not attend.

CVCC Placement Testing for Seniors Planning to Attend CVCC in the Fall of 2010.

Seniors planning to attend CVCC will have the opportunity to take the required CVCC Placement Test at BHS at 8:00 am on Wednesday, February 24, 2010 in the BHS Library. They must have applied to CVCC. Students must sign up in the Guidance Office by Friday, February 19, 2010 if they plan to take the test. The cost is $7.00 (checks made payable to CVCC or cash accepted). Students are to bring #2 pencils, a calculator and their social security number.

Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen Bulletins

Students and their parents are reminded to review the Bulletins for scholarship information, important reminders, volunteer opportunities, job announcements, summer programs, and so much more. All bulletins are also posted on the Brookville website under Guidance Department. Be mindful of the deadlines included in these bulletins and be sure to return completed applications for anything listed in the bulletins to the Guidance Office two weeks prior to the date the application is due.

2010 Course Registration for Freshmen, Sophomores & Juniors

Course registration for the 2010-2011 school year will be done as follows:

Juniors – Week of February 8

Sophomores – Week of February 8

Freshmen – Week of February 15

During the above weeks, counselors will conduct registration information sessions through the History/English classes and students will receive a copy of the registration forms and perspective course offerings for each grade level. Beginning the week of Feb. 22 until Spring Break, counselors will meet with students individually to help students select their courses for the next school year. A formal registration form that includes teacher recommendations and counselor signature will then be sent home with the student for parent approval and signature. The form should then be returned to the student's guidance counselor. Since staffing is determined by student enrollment in particular courses, we encourage students and parents to carefully consider course choices for next year as changes cannot be approved after the staffing is complete.

MANDATORY AP European Course Parent/Student Meeting

There will be a mandatory parent program on March 16, 2010 at 6:30 pm in the BHS Library outlining the advanced placement requirements for the AP European History Course. If your student is a current freshmen and is interested in registering to take this course next school year, please plan to attend this mandatory meeting with your student. Please call the guidance office if you have further questions.

Current AP course students and parents / AP Exams

On Thursday, January 7, 2010 all students currently enrolled in an AP course were given the materials to register to take the AP exam in that course. The students were given the AP Bulletin and the registration form and asked to return the completed registration form with the $86.00 exam fee to the guidance office by Friday, February 26, 2010. Exams must be ordered by March 10, 2010 and we can not order additional exams after that date. Fee reductions are available for economically disadvantaged students who are unable to pay the full price. Please call Ms. Wille in the guidance office ASAP if your family is unable to afford the exam fee.

January Classroom Guidance Lessons

A classroom Guidance lesson was conducted in January through English courses for grades 9, 10, and 11. Below is information on the topics discussed with each grade level.

Freshmen – January 6, 7 and 8, 2010

These lessons were conducted by the guidance counselors through freshmen English courses. These lessons focused on the beginnings of college and career exploration. An Educational and Career Planning Folder which is kept in their academic record was completed by each student. Students were encouraged to begin to think about how their favorite subjects, interests and skills apply to specific careers. Students were also encouraged to begin to volunteer and create a work experience/volunteer chart for future reference.

Juniors – January 20, 21 and 22, 2010

These lessons were conducted by the guidance counselors in the computer labs. Students were shown how to conduct a college search and career search using the internet. The Occupational Outlook Handbook website www.bls.gov/oco was used to demonstrate a career search and how to research information about a career of interest. College Board's College Search www.collegeboard.com/student/csearch/index.html was used to demonstrate a college search and how to find a college that matches the criteria a student is looking for in a college. Information about College Entrance Exams (SAT and ACT) was also discussed in detail. Students were instructed on who needs to take these exams, when the exams are offered and how to register to take these exams. Handouts detailing the two exams and the differences between the two were distributed to students. A packet of information including how to conduct college and career searches, SAT and ACT information, and much more was given to each student to take home to share with a parent.

Sophomores – January 26, 27 and 28, 2010

These lessons were conducted by the guidance counselors in the computer labs. Students were shown how to access the direct links to career and college exploration websites using the www.bhsbees.com website. Students were also instructed on how to use the www.virginiaview.org website. Students took a career interest inventory using this website and were able to explore how their interests related to possible future careers.

that your test center has not been affected.

- Plan ahead to arrive at the test center on time. Unless otherwise noted on your admission ticket, arrive at the test center no later than 7:45 am. Testing should start at approximately 8 am.

On Test Day:

- Give yourself plenty of time to get to the test center. Consider traffic, weather conditions, flat tires and anything else that could slow you down.
- Make sure you use #2 pencils, approved graphing calculator and acceptable photo ID.
- Be sure to test at the center indicated on your admission ticket. Even if you are scheduled to test at a center that was not your first choice, you are only guaranteed admission to the test center listed on your admission ticket. Seating is very limited at other test centers.
- Use breaks to eat or drink any snacks you have brought with you. You will have several breaks during the test. Use them to relax and eat a snack so you can stay focused.
- Pace yourself during the test. Remember, each question counts the same. If you find yourself spending too much time on one question, move on to the next question.

Teach Your Student How to Create a “Study Island” for Success

Today's teens never seem to focus on one thing at a time. They send text messages while they read their history. They watch TV while they're writing their English paper. And they're not doing any of it well. Research shows that the brain can really only focus on one thing at a time. So one of the best ways you can help your teen be successful is to create a “study island”. It should be a quiet place. Somewhere your teen can focus on

TESTING TIPS FOR ACT & SAT TESTS

Before test day:

- Make sure you have two #2 pencils and a soft eraser. A #2 pencil is required to answer the essay and multiple choice questions. Mechanical pencils are not allowed. Pens are not allowed.
- Make sure you bring an approved graphing calculator. Visit www.collegeboard.com for a list of approved calculators.
- Have your admission ticket and acceptable photo ID ready. You will need your admission ticket and photo ID for admission to the test center. If you do not have a photo ID, see Ms. Wille.
- Prepare snacks to bring with you. Although food or beverages cannot be opened in the test room, you may stow them under your chair or desk and consume them outside the test room during breaks. A healthy snack will go a long way in keeping you alert during the entire test.
- Be well rested and ready to go. Get a good nights sleep the night before the test and eat a good breakfast that morning.
- Check to see if your SAT test center is open. Visit <http://www.collegeboard.com> on Friday for a list of test center closings. On Saturday morning, if there is bad weather in your area, tune into your local media (like you do for school closing announcements) to make sure studying. And it should be separated from the rest of the world. That means no phone or text messages and no TV. It also means only using the internet for school work during study time. Have your teen try this for a few weeks. Keep track of how long it takes him to do his homework. Also keep track of the grades he receives. Before long, he should begin to notice a difference. When he studies on his "study island," his grades will go up.

Instant Alert Messages

Parents...The Campbell County School System has implemented the new instant alert system. This system will alert you by a phone call regarding school closings or delays, emergencies, etc. Campbell County would like to contact parents by email also. If you would like to have an instant alert message via email, please send your email address to Amy Hunley (ahunley@campbell.k12.va.us).

Valentines Day

Valentine's Day is quickly approaching. Brookville High School will not accept Valentine's Day deliveries at the school. If any deliveries come in, they will not be accepted at the front office.
