MANDATORY AP Student/Parent Meeting

Brookville High School has recently been accepted in to the Virginia Advanced Study Strategies (VAAS) Program. The purpose of this program is to strengthen the teaching of AP Mathematics, Science, and English courses to build enrollment and increase the number of students taking and earning qualifying scores on AP exams in these important subject areas.

Information meetings for parents will be held at BHS on February 22 and March 2 at 6:30 PM in the auditorium. We will discuss placement in AP courses, expectations for AP students, and enrollment/testing information. Please plan to attend one of these meetings if your student is considering enrolling in an AP course.

Academic Awards Banquet

Students achieving a 3.75 or higher cumulative grade point average will be recognized at the annual Academic Awards Banquet on Tuesday, March 1, 2011 at Timberlake United Methodist Church. A detailed letter will be mailed to parents of students who meet the GPA qualifications.

News from Guidance

Seniors

Although we have only completed the first semester of the 2010-2011 school year, students are already involved in planning their program for next year. Most of the seniors who are applying to four year colleges have completed the application process. Early decision acceptances have been received. As a result of the BHS Financial Aid Workshop before the holidays, many families are in the process of submitting a Financial Aid Application. The senior counselors are still working with students who are applying to colleges with later deadlines. Those who are still applying should be aware of college application due dates. Most seniors will probably receive notification as to the status of their application by April 1. If seniors are still undecided as they receive their acceptances, remember that a campus visit can often help students make a final choice. Watch your deadlines for accepting college offers of admission and for sending in housing deposits. Be sure to inform colleges you are not accepting that you will not attend.

CVCC Placement Testing for Seniors Planning to Attend CVCC in the Fall of 2011.

Seniors planning to attend CVCC will have the opportunity to take the required CVCC Placement Test at BHS at 8:00 am on Wednesday, March 2, 2011 in the BHS Library. Students must sign up in the Guidance Office by Friday, February 18, 2011 if they plan to take the test. The cost is $7.00 (checks made payable to CVCC or cash accepted). Students are to bring #2 pencils, a calculator and their social security number.

Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen Bulletins

Students and their parents are reminded to review the Bulletins for scholarship information, important reminders, volunteer opportunities, job announcements, summer programs, and so much more. All bulletins are also posted on the Brookville website under Guidance Department. Be mindful of the deadlines included in these bulletins and be sure to return completed applications for anything listed in the bulletins to the Guidance Office two weeks prior to the date the application is due.

2011-12 Course Registration for Freshmen, Sophomores & Juniors

Course registration for the 2011-2012 school year will be done as follows:

Juniors – January 31 and February 1

Sophomores – February 7 and 8

Freshmen – February 10

During the above days, counselors will conduct registration information sessions through the English classes and students will receive a copy of the course registration forms and perspective course offerings for each grade level. Beginning the week of Feb. 14 until Spring Break, counselors will meet with students individually to help students select their courses for the next school year. A formal registration form that includes teacher recommendations and counselor signature will then be sent home with the student for parent approval and signature. The form should then be returned to the student's school counselor. Since staffing is determined by student enrollment in particular courses, we encourage students and parents to carefully consider course choices for next year as changes cannot be approved after the staffing is complete.

Current AP course students and parents / AP Exams

On Wednesday, January 12, 2010 all students currently enrolled in an AP course were given the materials to register to take the AP exam in that course. The students were given the AP Bulletin and the registration form and asked to return the completed registration form with the $87.00 exam fee to the guidance office by Friday, February 25, 2011. Exams must be ordered by March 9, 2011 and we can not order additional exams after that date. Fee reductions are available for economically disadvantaged students who are unable to pay the full price. Please call Ms. Wille in the school counseling office ASAP if your family is unable to afford the exam fee.

Central Virginia Governor's School for Science and Technology

The application process for applying to CVGS has begun. CVGS is one of 18 Virginia Governor's Schools serving over 7000 gifted and talented students across the state. The school provides a special educational opportunity for students in Region 2000 that is designed to encompass the experiences that are recommended for gifted and talented high school students. So, if you are ready for a more college type environment during your last two years of high school, we encourage you to apply for admission. This is a competitive process and eligible students (must currently be enrolled in Honors Algebra II/Trig and Honors Chemistry or Algebra II and Honors Chemistry) were given a classroom lesson and handouts on the application process on Friday, January 7, 2011. Applications are now available in the school counseling office and the deadline to return completed applications to your school counselor is Friday, February 11, 2011.

Early College Program

The Early College Program is an exciting partnership between Campbell County Public Schools and Central Virginia Community College. This is a rigorous college preparatory program for academically motivated students. To be eligible to apply to the ECP the student must:

- 1) be a sophomore enrolled in a Campbell County high school
- 2) be currently enrolled in Honors Algebra II/Trig or a higher math course
- 3) have a GPA of 3.5 or higher
- 4) submit a completed application by Monday, February 14, 2011

This is a competitive process and eligible students were given a classroom lesson, handouts on the application process and information on parent meetings on Friday, January 7, 2011. Those parent meetings took place at the Campbell County Technical Center on January 25 and 27 at 7:00 pm. If you were unable to attend a parent meeting and have any questions, please contact the school counseling office. Applications are now available in the school counseling office and the deadline to return completed applications to your school counselor is Monday, February 14, 2011.

Campbell County Technical Center Open House

The Campbell County Technical Center cordially invites you to attend their annual open house on Monday, March 7, 2011 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. The open house will serve to inform parents and students about the various course offerings provided by Campbell County Schools at the Technical Center. Visitors will observe the accomplishments of our students through demonstrations of the skills they have learned and exhibitions of their work. Teachers will also be available to answer questions about their respective programs. Students from all grade levels are encouraged to attend.

January Classroom Guidance Lessons

A classroom Guidance lesson was conducted in January through English courses for grades 9, 10, and 11. Below is information on the topics discussed with each grade level.

Freshmen – January 5 and 6, 2011

These lessons were conducted by the School Counselors through the Freshmen History courses. The lessons focused on the beginnings of college and career exploration through the use of an interactive website called the Virginia Wizard. Lessons were taught in the computer labs and students were able to access, explore and create free profiles with Virginia Wizard. Career exploration began with the students taking one (or two if time permitted) of the online career assessments such as: Career Interest Assessment, Skills Assessment or the Work Values Assessment. These assessments provided the students with a description of the 16 Career Clusters and also provided each student with their top two or three Clusters (based on their assessment results). The School Counselors explained the 16 Career Clusters and encouraged the students to explore specific careers within their clusters as well as take an additional assessment if time allowed. Feel free to access the website that your students explored: www.vawizard.org.

Juniors – January 19 and 20, 2011

These lessons were conducted by the school counselors in the computer labs. Students were shown how to conduct a college search and career search using the internet. The Occupational Outlook Handbook website www.bls.gov/oco was used to demonstrate a career search and how to research information about a career of interest. College Board's College Search www.collegeboard.com/student/csearch/index.html was used to demonstrate a college search and how to find a college that matches the criteria a student is looking for in a college. Information about College Entrance Exams (SAT and ACT) was also discussed in detail. Students were instructed on who needs to take these exams, when the exams are offered and how to register to take these exams. Handouts detailing the two exams and the differences between the two were distributed to students. A packet of information including how to conduct college and career searches, SAT and ACT information, and much more was given to each student to take home to share with a parent.

Sophomores – January 25 and 26, 2011

These lessons were conducted by the School Counselors through the Sophomore English courses. The lessons focused on the continuation of college and career exploration through the use of an interactive website called the Virginia Wizard. Lessons were taught in the computer labs and students were able to access and create free profiles with the Virginia Wizard. The students took a free Career Interest Assessment. Based on their results the students learned about specific career clusters and careers that they may be interested in. Students were encouraged to choose one career to explore and to utilize the website to find answers to questions relevant to the career choice. The website provided information such as career descriptions, education needed, salary information, employer information as well as skills and abilities needed for the career. Feel free to access the website that your students explored: www.vawizard.org. There is a wealth of information regarding career and college search, college costs, interview and resume` building.

SPRING TESTING SCHEDULE

Beginning in February, the testing schedule for students will begin. The counselors recommend the following tips:

- Get plenty of sleep the night before the test
- If you feel nervous before beginning, try to relax by taking a few deep breaths.
- Maintain confidence in your abilities and plan to do your best
- Listen carefully to all instruction
- Focus your attention entirely on your work
- Position answer sheets so you can mark answers quickly and accurately
- When you complete the test, reread the questions and check your answers test and eat a good breakfast that morning.

- Check to see if your SAT test center is open. Visit <http://www.collegeboard.com> on Friday for a list of test center closings. On Saturday morning, if there is bad weather in your area, tune into your local media (like you do for school closing announcements) to make sure that your test center has not been affected.
- Plan ahead to arrive at the test center on time. Unless otherwise noted on your admission ticket, arrive at the test center no later than 7:45 am. Testing should start at approximately 8 am.

JUNIORS

TESTING TIPS FOR ACT & SAT TESTS

Before test day:

- Make sure you have two #2 pencils and a soft eraser. A #2 pencil is required to answer the essay and multiple choice questions. Mechanical pencils are not allowed. Pens are not allowed.
- Make sure you bring an approved graphing calculator. Visit www.collegeboard.com for a list of approved calculators.
- Have your admission ticket and acceptable photo ID ready. You will need your admission ticket and photo ID for admission to the test center. If you do not have a photo ID, see Ms. Wille.
- Prepare snacks to bring with you. Although food or beverages cannot be opened in the test room, you may stow them under your chair or desk and consume them outside the test room during breaks. A healthy snack will go a long way in keeping you alert during the entire test.
- Be well rested and ready to go. Get a good nights sleep the night before the

On Test Day:

- Give yourself plenty of time to get to the test center. Consider traffic, weather conditions, flat tires and anything else that could slow you down.
- Make sure you use #2 pencils, approved graphing calculator and acceptable photo ID.
- Be sure to test at the center indicated on your admission ticket. Even if you are scheduled to test at a center that was not your first choice, you are only guaranteed admission to the test center listed on your admission ticket. Seating is very limited at other test centers.
- Use breaks to eat or drink any snacks you have brought with you. You will have several breaks during the test. Use them to relax and eat a snack so you can stay focused.
- Pace yourself during the test. Remember, each question counts the same. If you find yourself spending too much time on one question, move on to the next question.

Teach Your Student How to Create a “Study Island” for Success

Today’s teens never seem to focus on one thing at a time. They send text messages while they read their history. They watch TV while they’re writing their English paper. And they’re not doing any of it well. Research shows that the brain can really only focus on one thing at a time. So one of the best ways you can help your teen be successful is to create a “study island”. It should be a quiet place. Somewhere your teen can focus on studying. And it should be separated from the rest of the world. That means no phone or text messages and no TV. It also means only using the internet for school work during study time. Have your teen try this for a few weeks. Keep track of how long it takes him to do his homework. Also keep track of the grades he receives. Before long, he should begin to notice a difference. When he studies on his “study island,” his grades will go up.

FFA News

Brookville celebrates 2011 National FFA Week

The Brookville FFA chapter will celebrate National FFA Week February 19-26, 2010. Infinite Potential is the theme this year and it embodies all the best about FFA members, from the most recognizable symbol of the organization, the blue corduroy jacket, a symbol of pride and tradition, to the bright future of agriculture and the traditions of leadership and hard work. More than half a million members around the nation will participate in National FFA Week activities at the local and state levels.

The focus of National FFA Week is to tell America about the great opportunities available for youth in agriculture. From its beginnings in 1928 as the Future Farmers of America, the National FFA Organization today reaches out to all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. From urban to rural schools, FFA is committed to developing character and leadership skills and preparing members for a lifetime of success in one of the 300 careers in agriculture.

As a part of National FFA Week, Brookville members are planning the following special events:

Monday- Blue and Gold Day
Tuesday- Tye-Dye Tuesday
Wednesday- Converse Day
Thursday- Go Green Day
Friday- Friday Farm Day

2009-2010 FFA Officers:
