Senioritis

Senioritis is the tendency for high school seniors - feeling assured of a university slot - to lose motivation, stop showing up to class, drop courses and generally slack off.

More and more universities and colleges are systematically revoking the admission of high school students who slack off their senior year.

Most students find out their admission status in the spring of their senior year and are asked to confirm by May 1 whether they are coming. But, acceptance to almost all schools comes with an often overlooked caveat stating that students must continue their work at an acceptable level through the remainder of their senior year.

Final transcripts are mailed to colleges from BHS's Guidance Department before the end of June. At this time, college admission counselors review the student's transcript to see if students have continued to maintain their academic status. If not, letters will be mailed rescinding the college's offer of acceptance. The rescinded students usually are given the chance to perform well at a community college and be reinstated at a later date. For some students, there are extenuating circumstances and these can be explained to the admissions officer, but these are exceptions!

Clinic News

We would like to thank the Virginia Eye Clinic for coming out and providing free eye screenings on all of the 10th grade boys and girls.

Teachers For Tomorrow

WE have started the school year with lots of projects that deal with education, students and school.

Our first big project was to write a book, skit or puppet show and put it on for our class. We also read one of the stories and showed the book to the Tomahawk elementary teachers at their introduction to Teachers For Tomorrow.

Our current topic is Special Education and our next project involves writing a publishable story about special education. We will design the book and create all the art work and then present it to a class.

On Wednesday, October 15, we attended a college lecture at Lynchburg College to learn more about Virginia standards and the history of education in America.

Chorus Concert

American Spirit

To be presented by the Brookville High School
Choral Department

The BHS Chorus and Women's Chorale under the direction of Mrs. Daryl Knott, will present American Spirit, a musical tribute for Veteran's Day on Sunday, November 9, 2008, at 4:00 PM at the Fort Hill United Methodist Church. The program will feature patriotic musical selections, songs of our American folk heritage and music to honor those who have proudly served our country. Guests will include Mr. David Harker, former Vietnam POW veteran, Mr. Thomas Blanks, representing the Campbell County Sons of the Confederacy, and featured soloist, former BHS student, Mrs. Jenny Jones Reynolds (Class of 1996). The singers will be accompanied by organ, piano and an ensemble of 12 instrumentalists that includes BHS band members, Lisa Watson, Andrew and Daniel Curling. The chorus students have requested that the performance be dedicated to the memory of Mr. Scott Wright, who passed away recently, and served as a Lieutenant Colonel in The Army Reserves. This concert is free and open to the public, but a free-will donation will be accepted.

Mr. & Miss Brookville Pageant

The fifth annual Miss and Mr. Brookville Pageant will take place on Friday, October 31, 2008, at 7:00 p.m. With the pageant falling on Halloween this year, it was easy to come up with the theme. The contestants will be dancing to Michael Jackson's "Thriller" and handing out candy for any of our young audience members who are giving up trick or treating to attend. Parents should feel free to bring younger siblings and friends in their costumes as there may be an audience costume contest during intermission.

There are over 40 contestants representing the junior and senior classes signed up this year. There will be some excellent entertainment as well. The dance team girls will be taking the stage, the band The Breaking will play, and the drama classes will be producing two short skits. Other Brookville students will be performing during the intermissions and down time. These students include Dara Orange, Amber Rosser, and Jessica Hesson.

The money generated from this event helps to fund The Beeline, the school's newspaper. Please come out on Halloween at 7:00 p.m. for an evening full of fun. You will truly see the best that Brookville High School has to offer.

BHS Athletic Boosters

Club News

The first 6 weeks have come to an end and BHS Athletics continue to enjoy much success in the Fall Sports Season. Good luck to all the teams in their respective post season. Winter sports begin in just a few weeks!

Boosters will continue to sell souvenirs and apparel at the Bee Barn through the last home football game including playoffs. We will again have extended hours in December leading up to Christmas for all your 'bee' gift ideas. In 2009 we have several events planned; the 2nd Annual Stinger Basketball Tournament will be held March 28-29, 2009. If your child plays recreation or travel basketball in the spring it would be a great event to participate in. Best of all, it is local!

The 15th Annual Paul "Bear" Brewer Classic will be held Saturday May 9, 2009 starting at 1:30PM. Look for more information on both of these events at www.bhsbees.com in the coming weeks.

The Booster club has had great support this year and we have increased in our membership. As always, membership is $5.00/person and proceeds go to help the club support Brookville High School Athletics. Our most recent project were upgrades to the weight room. For more information, click on the Clubs and Organizations New Links on www.bhsbees.com. The next General Membership Meeting will be in January 2009. Finally, if you would like to offer suggestions or concerns, you can email the Booster Club at bhsbeesboosters@yahoo.com
